(4) The Party shall ensure that not more than two-thirds of the nominated candidates for elective positions are of the same gender, actively promoting the inclusion of women, youth, persons with disabilities (PWDs), and marginalized communities.

Rule 4: Compliance with Constitutional and Statutory Frameworks

(1) These Rules are formulated in strict compliance with:-

(a) The Constitution of Kenya, 2010;
(b) The Political Parties Act, Cap. 7B;
(c) The Elections Act, No. 24 of 2011, and regulations made thereunder;
(d) The Election Offences Act, No. 37 of 2016;
(e) The Data Protection Act, No. 24 of 2019;
(f) The Leadership and Integrity Act, Cap. 182; and
(g) The UGM Party Constitution, 2025.

(2) Where any conflict arises between the provisions of these Rules and the statutory laws of Kenya or the UGM Party Constitution 2025, the provisions of statutory laws and the Party Constitution shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

PART II: INSTITUTIONAL FRAMEWORK FOR NOMINATIONS

Rule 5: Establishment and Composition of the National Elections Board (NEB)

(1) Pursuant to Article 15 of the UGM Party Constitution 2025, there is established the National Elections Board (NEB) as an autonomous, independent operational organ of the Party responsible for the management of all internal party electoral processes.

(2) The NEB shall consist of Seven (7) members appointed by the NEC, structured as follows:-

(a) A Chairperson;
(b) A Vice-Chairperson; and
(c) Five (5) other members,

(3) The composition of the NEB shall reflect:-

(a) The two-thirds gender principle;
(b) Regional balance and the diversity of the Kenyan people; and
(c) Inclusion of at least one youth or one person living with disability (PWD) or person from a minority group.

Rule 6: Functions, Powers and Duties of the NEB

(1) The NEB shall have the sole administrative mandate to plan, organize, oversee, and conduct all party elections, nominations and primaries for candidates for political office on behalf of the Party.

UNITED GREEN MOVEMENT
12 OCT 2026
P.O. BOX 22467-00100 NAIROBI.

(4) Members of the NEB shall serve for a standing term of five (5) years, eligible for re-appointment for only one further term of five years from the date of appointment. To preserve institutional stability, no member of the NEB shall be removed from office during the pendency of an election. This period is defined as six (6) months prior to the gazetted primary dates up to the final declaration of General Election results. They shall enjoy operational security of tenure and may only be removed from office by a two-thirds (2/3rds) majority vote of the NEC on grounds of exhibiting allegiance to another political party, gross misconduct, violation of the UGM Party Constitution or other laws of Kenya, Absence from the Board's meetings for three consecutive meetings without reasonable explanation or apology, Insubordination, Communicating Board activities, resolutions without the express authority of Chairperson of the NEB, physical or mental incapacity, or bankruptcy.

(5) A member of the Board who is subject of removal proceedings, shall be subject to Article 47 (1) of the Constitution of Kenya 2010 and the Fair Administrative Action Act, 2015.

(6) A petition by an aggrieved party member, official or organ, for removal of a National Elections Board Member, on any of the specified grounds, shall be submitted to the Disciplinary Committee in writing setting out facts and grounds for removal.

(7) Any vacancy shall be filled within seven (7) days by the NEC following the sourcing procedure in this Rule.

Rule 8: Specific Functions of Chairperson, Vice-Chairperson and Secretary of the National Elections Board

(1) The Chairperson of the NEB shall:-

(a) Be the executive head and official spokesperson of the Board;
(b) Preside over all meetings, plenaries, and strategic sessions of the Board;
(c) Be a signatory of nomination certificates;
(d) Formally present the certified list of UGM party nominees to the IEBC and the ORPP alongside either of the Co-Secretaries General or Executive Director of the Party; and
(e) Issue institutional briefs to the NEC on the progress and outcomes of electoral processes.

(2) The Vice-Chairperson shall:-

(a) Perform all duties and exercise all delegated authority of the Chairperson in case of the Chairperson's absence or incapacity;
(b) Oversee the internal logistics, human resource deployments, and training protocols of election officials; and
(c) Coordinate the specialized sub-committees of the Board, focusing on candidate vetting and affirmative action waivers.

(3) In the absence of both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson, the remaining five (5) members shall elect one among themselves to chair the specific plenary session, provided a quorum of three (3) members is met.

P.O. BOX 22467-00100 NAIROBI.

(6) All election officers appointed under these Rules must undergo rigorous training conducted by the NEB on electoral laws, data protection compliance, and tech toolkit systems prior to deployment.

(7) The Party shall pay all election officers a fair and professional remuneration package as approved in the NEB budget, independent of local candidate funding.

(8) The NEB and CEBs, via the Party Secretariat, shall execute coordination protocols with the National Police Service and local security structures to facilitate adequate security for all personnel, voters, and materials at all nomination venues.

Rule 10: Code of Conduct for Election Officials and Conflict of Interest

(1) Every member of the NEB, CEBs, and all temporary electoral staff shall sign an oath of neutrality, secrecy, and strict adherence to the Party Electoral Code of Conduct prior to assuming office.

(2) No electoral official shall express bias, endorse, campaign for, or provide financial or logistical support to any aspirant seeking a UGM party nomination.

(3) Where an electoral official has a direct or indirect personal, familial, or financial relationship with an aspirant in a zone under their jurisdiction, the official shall immediately declare a conflict of interest in writing to the NEB and recuse themselves from any involvement, administration, or decision-making regarding that specific nomination process.

(4) Breach of this Rule shall result in immediate summary dismissal, cancellation of any compromised processes, and referral to statutory law enforcement agencies where election offences are detected.

PART III: NOMINATION METHODS AND PROCEDURES

Rule 11: Authorized Nomination Methods (Direct and Indirect Nominations)

(1) The UGM Party shall through (its general body of members or delegates of the Branch, Sub-Branch or Ward) nominate its candidates for elective positions through either Direct Nomination or Indirect Nomination methods.

(2) The selection of the method to be deployed in any specific electoral area shall be determined by the NEB based on technical, financial, and political feasibility assessments, and must be formally ratified by the NEC.

(3) The choice of method must be published and communicated to all aspirants in the affected electoral areas at least fourteen (14) days before the scheduled date of the nominations, to guarantee predictability and fairness.

UNITED GREEN MOVEMENT
12 OCT 2026
P.O. BOX 22457-00100 NAIROBI

(3) The selection of the nomination method, dates, venue(s) for nominations for any given area must be determined by the NEB, ratified by the NEC, and published on the Party Website at least seven (7) days before the scheduled date of the nominations. In the event of a direct nomination the NEB shall post in a conspicuous place within each nomination venue the list of the party members eligible to participate in the nomination. Moreover, in indirect nomination the NEB shall select delegates who shall participate in the party nominations strictly from among party members and shall submit the list of delegates to the ORPP at least 10 days prior to the party nomination date and specify the venue of the delegates meeting.

Rule 14: Notice of Intention to Conduct Party Primaries and Nominations

(1) In strict compliance with Section 31 of the Elections Act, the NEB shall, through either of the Co-Secretaries General, issue a formal public Notice of Intention to conduct party nominations at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date of the nominations.

(2) The Notice shall be published in at least two newspapers of nationwide circulation, or on the official UGM Party website, or broadcasted via accessible radio stations.

(3) The Notice must explicitly specify:-

(a) The nomination methods to be used in respective electoral regions/zones/area(s);
(b) The venues, dates, opening and closing hours for nominations;
(c) The required qualifications, application procedures, and deadlines for submission of expressions of interest; and
(d) The schedule of non-refundable nomination fees payable by aspirants.

Rule 15: Voter Register and Eligibility to Participate in Primaries

(1) Only members whose names appear on the official UGM Party Membership Register certified by the Registrar of Political Parties (ORPP) at least seven (7) days prior to the statutory nomination date shall be eligible to vote or participate in the party primaries.

(2) No person shall be allowed to vote in the party primaries unless they present:-

(a) An original National Identity Card (ID) or valid Kenyan Passport; and
(b) Verification of membership via the ORPP digital portal or the physical printed certified register at the designated polling station.

(3) No person who is a registered member of another political party or registered as an independent voter or candidate shall be permitted to vote in a UGM Party primary. Any attempt to do so shall constitute an electoral infraction under these Rules.

Rule 18: Vetting, Data Protection, and Shortlisting Procedures

(1) All nomination applications received by the NEB shall undergo systematic, non-discriminatory vetting.

(2) The NEB shall review applications to verify the authenticity of academic credentials, statutory clearances, financial compliance, and adherence to the UGM Party values of green politics, social justice, and ecological integrity.

(3) In compliance with the Data Protection Act, 2019 and prevailing Office of the Data Protection Commissioner (ODPC) guidelines, the Secretary to the NEB—acting as the designated Data Protection Officer (DPO)—shall enforce the following controls:-

(a) Consent: Every applicant must execute an explicit, written Data Processing Consent Form alongside their EOI;
(b) Data Minimization: The Board shall only collect background records, biographical data, and criminal disclosures strictly required for statutory verification under the Elections Act;
(c) Confidentiality: All vetting sessions, background checks, and applicant files shall be securely stored using encrypted digital lockers or restricted access files. Unauthorized disclosure of candidate data shall constitute a gross disciplinary offense and a violation of national law.

(4) Upon completion of the vetting process, the NEB shall publish a formal Shortlist of Qualified Aspirants within fourteen (14) days from the close of application windows.

Rule 19: Nomination Fee Structures, Graduations, and Waivers

(1) All applicants must pay a non-refundable nomination fee directly into the verified and authorized UGM Party Elections Bank Account and present the banking slip to the NEB before processing of their papers.

(2) The standard scale of nomination fees shall be prescribed by the NEB and approved by the NEC, maintaining a progressive structure. The NEB with the concurrence of the NEC may by notice, vary these fees at any time.

(3) In line with political inclusion goals, women, youth (aged 35 and below), and Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) shall enjoy a standardized fifty percent (50%) discount/waiver on all prescribed nomination fees. The NEB may offer full fee exemptions for exceptionally qualified Women, Youth and PWD applicants in marginalized areas, subject to NEC confirmation.

(4) The scheduled structure of application fees is categorized as follows:-

Elective Office Target	Standard Application Fee (KES)	Special Category Fee (KES) (Women, Youth, PWDs)
President	500,000	250,000
County Governor	300,000	150,000

Rule 31: Submission, Verification and Publication of Party Lists

(1) The provisional Party Lists prepared by the NEB shall be submitted to the NEC for review, verification, and formal political sign-off.

(2) Once approved by the NEC, the final Party Lists shall be submitted to the IEBC via its secure portal within the statutory timelines set by the Commission.

(3) The submitted lists shall, when appropriate, be published on the UGM Party official digital channels and or office(s) for public inspection. No alteration to the submitted list may be done after submission to the IEBC except as provided under the law due to death, disqualification, or successful legal challenge.

(4) No candidate included on an active Party List may be simultaneously listed as a candidate for a single-member constituency elective seat in the same cycle. The Co-Secretaries General of the Party shall ensure the filing of party lists directly via the IEBC Candidate Submission Portal.

PART VII: DISPUTE RESOLUTION MECHANISMS & DISCIPLINE

Rule 32: Establishment and Sourcing of the Internal Dispute Resolution Committee (IDRC)

(1) Pursuant to Section 40 of the Political Parties Act and the UGM Party Constitution, there is established an independent ad-hoc organ known as the UGM Internal Dispute Resolution Committee (IDRC).

(2) The IDRC shall comprise (5) members appointed by the NEC. No current member of the NEB or the NEC may sit in the IDRC. Its decisions shall not be subject to ratification by any other organ of the party.

(3) The Chairperson of the IDRC must have experience in administrative law, dispute resolution, electoral and constitutional law. The other members may include elders, legal or arbitration professionals, and representatives of youth and women organizations within the party. Members of the IDRC shall serve for a standing term of three (3) years, eligible for re-appointment for only one further term of three years from the date of appointment. The quorum of the IDRC shall be 3 members.

(4) Funding for the IDRC shall be drawn from a dedicated dispute resolution kitty under the Party treasury, to ensure it does not rely on NEB operational budgets.

Rule 35: Nomination Campaign and Code of Conduct Guidelines

(1) All cleared aspirants are bound to adhere to the strict provisions of the Electoral Code of Conduct embedded within the Second Schedule of the Elections Act, alongside the internal UGM Green Campaign values.

(2) Every aspirant must execute the signed UGM Nomination Campaign Pledge, binding themselves to:-

(a) Avoid hate speech, ethnic balkanization, inciting language, or slander against opponents;
(b) Prevent the deployment of physical violence, thuggery, or intimidation by campaign teams or supporters;
(c) Refrain from giving bribes, distributing direct cash incentives, or engaging in voter treating at polling venues;
(d) Keep campaign materials, posters, and rallies aligned with green environmental standards, including zero littering and respect for local municipal cleanup regulations.

(3) The NEB shall enforce the following campaign guidelines. The authorized person(s) of the Party shall issue a notice for campaigns for nominations or election of party officials. The said notice shall specify the timelines for the campaigns and venue(s)/other modalities. The NEB shall develop a campaign schedule and submit the campaign schedule to other relevant institutions. The NEB, with reasonable cause, may recommend an aspirant or candidate be subject to disciplinary processes of the Party for violations during the campaigns and the IDRC may issue appropriate sanctions for violations during campaigns.

Rule 36: Enforcement of Discipline and Sanctions for Electoral Malpractices

(1) The NEB, upon receiving verifiable intelligence, or the IDRC, during petition proceedings, may investigate actions by candidates that violate the Nomination Code of Conduct.

(2) Where a candidate or their designated campaign team is found to have directly engineered, funded, or condoned electoral malpractice, the NEB shall have the power to enforce the following progressive sanctions:-

(a) Official Censure: A formal written warning published on the party bulletin for minor procedural infractions;
(b) Financial Penalization: Forfeiture of security deposits or a compliance fine not exceeding KES 10,000,000;
(c) Disqualification: Total nullification of the aspirant's clearance and structural removal from the primary ballot or nomination register;
(d) Expulsion Recommendation: Transmission of a gross misconduct charge sheet to the National Disciplinary Committee requesting the total expulsion of the individual from the UGM Party.

13 OCT 2026

Rule 40: Election of Grassroots Organs and Leagues

(1) Grassroots Party elections shall be conducted across the following sequential layers: Polling Station Action Committees (PSAC), Ward Action Committees (WAC), Sub-Branch Committees (SBC), and County Branch Committees (BC).

(2) The UGM Women League and UGM Youth League officials shall be elected at the sub-branch, branch, and national layers by secret ballot of their respective caucuses.

(3) Each committee tier must maintain a balanced corporate identity, comprising dual co-chairpersons, co-secretaries, co-treasurers, and co-directors of diversity adhering to the opposite-gender requirement.

PART IX: GENERAL AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Rule 41: Data Protection and Privacy Compliance (ODPC Guidelines)

(1) The NEB, IDRC, and all Party staff shall handle all member and aspirant personal data, including national identities, biometric data, telephone records, financial statements, and academic documents, in strict compliance with the Data Protection Act, 2019 and guidelines issued by the Office of the Data Protection Commissioner (ODPC).

(2) Personal data collected for nomination purposes shall only be processed for the direct execution of elections, vetting, and verification, and shall not be shared with third parties without the explicit, written, informed consent of the data subject.

(3) All digital storage systems hosting the party register or aspirant profiles must be encrypted, and access controls restricted to authorized NEB, IDRC or Party Secretariat personnel. After the conclusion of the election cycle, files shall be securely archived or disposed of according to statutory schedules.

Rule 42: Retention and Public Inspection of Electoral Documents

(1) The Secretary to the NEB shall maintain secure, systematic custody of all nomination materials, executed Expressions of Interest, vetting scorecards, signed Form UGM-P1s, tallying summaries, and IDRC judgments.

(2) Retention Mandate: All physical and digital records relating to the 2027 nomination cycle shall be preserved intact for a minimum period of three (3) years following the formal gazettement of the final general election results.

(3) Public Inspection: Any registered UGM Party member or official regulatory agent from the ORPP or IEBC may inspect the non-confidential nomination returns during standard business hours at the UGM National Headquarters. Access requests must be submitted in writing to the Secretary through the Secretaries General of the Party.
